Moses Robinson Esquire
Governor Captain General Commander in Chief, in and over the State of Vermont
A PROCLAMATION

It being a duty incumbent upon all men to acknowledge the overruling Providence of GOD; and upon all suitable occasions, with united hearts and voices, to render Him their grateful acknowledgements for the manifold blessings which at all times, he is pleased to bestow upon us. Them I have therefore thought fit, by and with advice of Council, and at the request of the General Assembly, to appoint, and I do hereby appoint, Thursday the twenty sixth day of November next, to be observed as a day of public Thanksgiving and praise throughout this State: and I do hereby recommend to all people of every denomination residing within the same, strictly to observe said day, and devoutly to offer to Almighty GOD their humble tributes of praise through the merits of Jesus Christ; expressing their gratitude for the various blessings conferred upon us, particularly that he hath suffered no wasting sickness to prevail among us — That he has been pleased to crown the season in so much mercy — that he hath prospered the labour of the husbandman, and hath caused the earth to yield her encrease — that there is such a degree of tranquility prevailing among us, That we have the full enjoyment of our civil and religious rights — and that with sincere expressions of gratitude, we join in a humble confession of our sins, and the same amendment of our lives, imploring continuance of his favours — That he would succeed the administration of government — That he would direct and prosper measures that may be adopted for the admission of this State into the union of the United States - That the Light of blessings be bestowed on on the inhabitants of this land - That the knowledge of truth promoted the spirit of true religion ~~be~~ received, and the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, be enlarged and the whole earth be filled with his glory
